Can you remember when you first learnt to read and who taught you?

I taught myself, but my Mum and Dad helped me. I used to read with a dictionary beside me so I could look up any words I didn't understand.

What was your favourite book as a child and why?

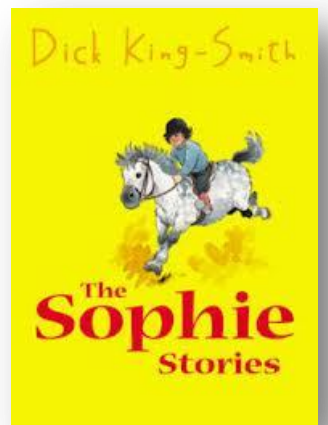

I liked the Sophie Stories by Dick King-Smith. I liked the main character because she was bold.

What sort of reading do you do for pleasure now?

I read lots of books, but mystery, thriller and crime are my favourites. I also enjoyed the Harry Potter series.

What's been your favourite book in the last five years?

My favourite book of the last five years has to be the Hunger Games by Suzanne Collins

Why does reading for pleasure matter to you?

I think that it is better than films because you can imagine everything yourself and can have your own ideas and take on the story.
