

Can you remember when you first learnt to read and who taught you?

I first learnt to read late, in Reception I think. So it would have been my teacher who taught me.

What was your favourite book as a child and why?

Probably 'The Sea Of Adventure' by Enid Blyton. I found it thrilling!

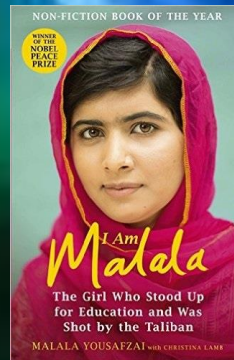

What are you reading at the moment?

At the moment I'm reading 'I Am Malala' By Malala Yousafzai

Mr M Smith

Head of Biology

What's been your favourite book of the last five years?

Well I enjoyed a book called 'A Perfect Spy' by John Le Carré and 'Gone Girl' by Gillian Flynn.

What sort of reading do you do for pleasure now?

Mostly spy novels but I do read children's books every once in a while for fun.

Why does reading for pleasure matter to you?

I find that it helps me relax and switch off ready to go to bed.
