Dear Parent/Guardian

Year 13 Mock A-Level Examination Leave

All students in Year 13 are involved in 'mock' A-Level exams in January. To provide them with the opportunity to spend time on revision and preparation at home, they have been given leave of absence from Monday 15 to Friday 26 January 2018 inclusive.

Students may wish to work in school during this period - at times when they do not have exams - and they will be welcome to do so. However, they will need to sign in and out at Reception accordingly.

Students have been encouraged to approach revision and practice for these exams in a proactive and organised way. The exams are an important way for them to get a head start on the revision necessary for their public exams in the summer, as well as to give them practice of these exams, and to set the agenda for work in their final months in the Sixth Form.

I would be grateful if you could sign and return the attached slip as soon as you are able.

Yours faithfully

Mr S Smith
Head of Sixth Form
